Saint Mary's Nursery School (SMNS) is a child care center on the University of Pennsylvania campus in West Philadelphia. Established 61 years ago, we serve children ages 18 months to 5 years and provide aftercare for school-aged children 5 to 12. Though housed in a church building, we are a non-religious, secular organization. Our vibrant and diverse community is rooted in creativity, and we nurture young children through compassionate classroom management and a play-based, Reggio Emilia–inspired curriculum.
Learn more at: https://stmarysnursery.org/

Work-Study Assistant Teacher

Job Overview
(SMNS) partners with the University of Pennsylvania's Work-Study Program to offer year-round opportunities for students. We are looking for a dedicated and passionate Assistant Teacher to join our early childhood education team.

Eligibility: applicants must be a UPenn student who has been awarded Federal Work-Study. Please confirm eligibility with the UPenn Work-Study Office.

Schedule: This position is available year-round with flexible hours.

Responsibilities: Support in classrooms and assist teachers with daily activities.

Skills

- Experience working with students in an educational or daycare setting is preferred.
- Ability to educate young children effectively while making learning enjoyable.
- Excellent communication skills for interacting with children, parents, and staff members.
- Patience, creativity, and enthusiasm for working with young learners.

Pay: $13 - $16 per hour, dependent on educational credentials and experience.

SMNS is an equal opportunity child care provider and an equal opportunity employer. We employ personnel without regard to race, creed, color, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender expression, age, physical or mental ability, veteran status, military obligations, and marital status.

To apply, please send a resume to:
Suria: suria@stmarysnursery.org and Christy: christy@stmarysnursery.org